

GOP Congress Race Highlights Tuesday's Election

LEONARD CAMPBELL

JACK TENNEY

Some 80,000 Riverside and Imperial voters will march to the polls tomorrow to name their choice for a 38th district congressional election.

Heading the Democratic ticket will be incumbent D. S. Saund, now recovering from a stroke in Bethesda Naval Hospital in Maryland. He is opposed by former Palm Springs teacher and hotel operator, Ray Hiller.

It is expected, that — in spite of his illness — Saund will win his party's renomination handily. On the Republican side, a spirited three way race is being concluded. Candidates are "Pat" Minor Martin, a Riverside attorney who has never before run for political office; Leonard Campbell, a retired minister who is now operating an insurance business in Beaumont and was defeated by Saund in the 1960 campaign and former State Senator Jack B. Tenney, now a Banning attorney.

In the three way race, Campbell started out as the favorite. Then strong conservative support developed for Tenney. In the final weeks there has been an apparent swing toward Martin.

At present, it would appear that Martin would have to be called the favorite to win, with Tenney and Campbell fighting for the second spot. However, recent telephone polls show that either of the two hopefuls could nip Martin at the wire.

Martin's strength appears to lie in the Riverside area, although both Tenney and Campbell forces claim that they have made heavy inroads on that strength.

NON-PARTISAN RACES

Seven Candidates Seek County Supervisor Job

A seven-man race for the job of Fourth District Supervisor holds the spotlight in the desert area tomorrow as voters go to the polls in the June primary election.

There are 25,639 eligible to vote on the non-partisan seat being vacated by County Supervisor

George Berkey and there could be a tally split that would force a run-off in the November general election.

The candidates, in ballot order, are Louis H. Carter, 38, of Desert Hot Springs, semi-retired coach; William W. "Bill" Cook, 55, of Palm Desert, farmer-businessman; O. R. "Don" Crabtree, 40, of Palm Springs, horticulturist; William T. Freeman, 54, of Indio, public accountant; Harold F. Haskell, 52, of Mecca, cost estimator-construction; Leslie S. Morgan, 46, of Desert Hot Springs, real estate developer, and Leonard H. "Lenny" Wolf Jr., 51, of Palm Springs, general contractor.

15 Other Offices

Fifteen other non-partisan offices are to be decided in tomorrow's voting with that of Sheriff Joe Rice, who is seeking reelection over a field of four aspirants, next in order of interest.

Opposing Rice are Robert L. Garcia, 50, of Palm Springs (no occupation listed on the ballot); Cecil E. Johnson, 35, of Riverside, college instructor; Joe J. Klure, 35, of Riverside, security agency director, and John J. "Jack" Kovey, 53, law enforcement.

Superior Judge John G. Gabbert and Desert Municipal Judge Eugene E. Theriault are unopposed. Indio's Municipal Judge Wallace P. Rouse is opposed by two attorneys, George W. Hooten, 48, and C. Frederick Woolpert, 54, both of Indio.

Marshall Kenneth P. Anderson, who serves both the Palm Springs and Indio Municipal Courts, is seeking return to office over two aspirants, Fred E. Duffey, 57, and Howard F. Poe, 47, both former constables in Palm Springs.

Nine Seats Unopposed

There are nine other county level offices on the ballot with but a single candidate. These are superintendent of schools, Leonard Grindstaff, incumbent; assessor Eric L. Waite, incumbent; auditor, W. Allen Ladd, incumbent; coroner, James S. Bird Jr., incumbent; county clerk, Donald D. Sullivan, assistant clerk; district attorney, William O. Mackey, incumbent; recorder, William D. Balogh, assistant recorder; tax collector, Donna M. Bower, incumbent; treasurer, E. O. Peterson, incumbent.

Propositions on the ballot have been covered in a series of editorials in The Desert Sun. The newspaper's recommendations are listed on today's editorial page.

Voters in the Desert Hot Springs County Water District will decide whether their agency should annex to the Desert Water Agency (Palm Springs-Cathedral City) for negotiation of importation of Feather River water.

NEWS in BRIEF

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The heavy construction industry has accused building trades unions of making exorbitant wage demands and has appealed to the Kennedy administration to fight them.

William E. Dunn, executive director of the Associated General Contractors of America Inc., said Sunday the government should tell the unions that "the guidelines developed by the President's Council of Economic Advisers were meant to apply to them the same as to anybody else."

PUERTO CABELLO, Venezuela (UPI) — Government troops today completed occupation of Puerto Cabello and captured hundreds of civilians fleeing the mop-up campaign against the latest unsuccessful revolt.

The government said fighting had halted completely. The casualty list was unofficially estimated at more than 400.

DALLAS (UPI) — Democrat John Connally will face Democrat-turned-Republican Jack Cox in Texas' November gubernatorial election in what promises to be a bitter, no holds-barred battle.

Former Navy Secretary Connally who has been associated with Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson since the late 1930s, won the Democratic nomination for the governorship Saturday in a close runoff election with Houston attorney Don Yarborough.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara readied himself today for some stiff questioning over a newly developing dispute between him and Congress.

McNamara was scheduled to testify before a special House armed services subcommittee.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Undersecretary George W. Ball told Senate investigators today that the State Department had taken a number of steps in recent months to improve its policies in review of speeches by military leaders.

Ball denied that the department strictly discouraged the use of such words as "victory" in reference to the cold war.

WEATHER

Desert Area Forecast: Mostly sunny today and Tuesday. Gusty winds locally 20 to 35 miles per hour at times today. Cooler most areas today with high temperatures 92 to 98. Slightly warmer Tuesday.

Palm Springs had a high of 105 Sunday, with a low of 72.

French Mystified by 'Worst' Airline Crash

130 Meet Fiery Death in 707 Takeoff Crash

PARIS (UPI) — French officials were mystified today as to what caused a Boeing 707 jetliner to hurtle off the end of a runway on takeoff carrying 130 persons to their deaths, 121 of them Americans returning from a European holiday.

Close watch was kept over two stewardesses, the only survivors, in hopes they could provide a clue to the worst disaster involving a single airplane in aviation history.

Flying weather was perfect. The pilot was expert. The plane had been checked and rechecked. Officials said sabotage could not be entirely ruled out but was being discounted until the wreckage had been thoroughly examined.

Mayor Ivan Allen of Atlanta, Ga., home of most of the victims, flew in to give what help he could. Atlanta lost many of its most prominent citizens and was in a state of deep mourning. A U.S. Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) investigator also was flying in to join the investigation.

Roars Down Runway

The Air France jetliner, half as long as a football field, roared down the runway at Orly Field Sunday with Commander Roland Hoche, a man of 13 years flying experience, at the controls.

The four jet engines poured out power but it never became airborne. Some witnesses said the wheels got a few feet in the air. Others said the plane seemed glued to the ground.

Pierre Loiseau, an Orly control tower radioman, said he saw puffs of blue smoke under the wheels about 800 yards from the end of the runway, indicating the pilot was braking hard.

Other witnesses believed the pilot also used his engines to try to stop.

"But the aircraft continued," Loiseau said. "At no time did it seem to leave the ground. A few yards from the end of the runway it went from one wheel to the other as if the pilot were trying to get off the runway."

"At the end of the runway it cut a swath through the posts carrying landing lights. Then it stopped its mad career after another 200 yards when it was near the houses in the Rue la Martine of Villeneuve le Roi."

DMV Bids At Council Meet Today

Construction bids for the planned 2,000 foot Department of Motor Vehicles building, to be built by the city of Palm Springs for lease to the state agency, will come before the city council today.

The DMV facility, originally estimated at approximately $40,000 drew a low bid of $53,607 from Kretz and Wilson Construction Co. Increases in specifications submitted by the state agency contributed to the increased bid costs, a city engineering aide reported.

The council may accept the bid during its meeting beginning at 7:30 p.m. today, or could ask for cost reduction plan revisions, with rejection of the four bids which ranged to $57,716.

The council will be advised today that the Greyhound Corp. has asked the California Public Utilities Commission for a five per cent intrastate rate increase. The rate increase request, subject to PUC public hearings, may draw fire from Palm Springs citizens and agencies who have protested during the past winter season that bus service to this resort town is inadequate.

A public hearing on the application by Oliver Construction Co. and Leighton-Howard Construction Corp. for a change of zone from guest ranch and R-2, limited multiple dwelling, to R-3 hotel and apartment, for portions of the La Paz Hotel grounds on East Palm Canyon Drive.

Wind Whipping Breaks Power In Palm Springs

A short in a wind-whipped line late Sunday was found and repaired in 15 minutes, restoring service to affected areas in the north and central portions of Palm Springs.

Ray Burkett, California Electric Power Co. official, reported that a wire short, caused when high winds cracked protective covering on one line and lashed it against another, was fixed at approximately 9:21 p.m. The outage occurred at 9:08 p.m.

Still Campbell For McCoubrey

Ed McCoubrey, local Republican leader, told the Desert Sun today that his endorsement of Leonard Campbell as Republican nominee for Congress still stands.

"I came out early for Campbell," McCoubrey said. "Some misunderstanding has arisen since the Desert Sun's report of my presence at a luncheon for Pat Martin. I went there as a good Republican merely to hear Martin and to know him better. My position is still unchanged," McCoubrey concluded.

Big 3 Candidates Close Campaigns

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—California's three major candidates for governor fired their closing campaign shots today on the eve of Tuesday's primary election.

Richard M. Nixon, who almost was president but now is staking his political future on winning the Republican nomination for governor, claimed Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown has been a "costly embarrassment" to the people of the state during Brown's 3 years in office.

Assemblyman Joseph C. Shell of Los Angeles, a conservative who hopes to climax a long-shot bid by wresting the GOP nomination from Nixon, said Sunday night in an hour-long statewide television show that if elected he would tend to the state's business "and not gaze out the window at the White House."

Brown, who has only taken opposition in his bid for the Democratic nomination at Tuesday's primary, belabored both Nixon and Shell in his closing pitch to the state's 7 million voters.

Nixon Favored

"Republicans won't have much choice in this primary," he said. "They will have to choose between an assemblyman whose philosophy is a century behind the times and a loser from Washington who is running for governor only to position himself for another crack at the presidency in 1964."

Brown is certain to be his party's nominee against the winner of the Nixon-Shell clash. Nixon is rated the favorite for the GOP nomination although even some of his closest supporters concede that Shell may get between 35 and 40 per cent of the GOP vote.

The conservative vs. liberal or moderate views in the clash between Shell and Nixon for the GOP gubernatorial nomination is echoed in several other Republican contests on the state's lengthy primary ballot.

U.S. Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, minority whip in the Senate and an Eisenhower Republican, faces two staunch conservatives in Loyd Wright, Los Angeles attorney, and Howard Jarvis, Southern California businessman. Both have assailed Kuchel as a man whose voting record is more Democratic than Republican.

Eight New Races

On the Democratic ballot, State Sen. Richard Richards has only minor opposition in his bid to win a November runoff spot against Kuchel.

All 30 incumbent congressmen—16 Democrats and 14 Republicans—are seeking re-election including Republicans John Rousselot and Edgar Hiestand, both members of the John Birch Society. Both have GOP opposition in the primary.

By virtue of its tremendous population gains in the past decade, California also will add eight new congressmen this year. Democrats, in control of both houses of the legislature and backed by Brown's blessings, reapportion the Congressional districts in such a way that Democrats are solidly favored to add to their majority after the primary and November runoff.

California voters, with Democrats holding almost a 3-2 edge in registration, also will ballot tomorrow on $970 million in proposed bond issues, a measure to extend daylight savings time through the month of October, on such state offices as attorney general and lieutenant governor and for 80 seats in the state assembly and 20 in the senate.

BEFORE EXPLOSION

Nuclear Shot Flight Destroyed

HONOLULU (UPI) — A Thor missile carrying a nuclear device was destroyed in flight today less than two minutes before the bomb was scheduled to explode and launch a series of U. S. nuclear tests in the atmosphere.

A safety officer blew up the Thor — without setting off the nuclear device — because of a tracking malfunction, according to a government announcement. The Thor was destroyed minutes after it was launched at 2:47 a.m. PDT and with 100 seconds remaining in the nuclear countdown.

The scheduled detonation near Johnston Island was to have been the first in a controversial series of U. S. tests in the Pacific.

Foreign scientists have objected strongly to the tests, largely on grounds that they would disturb the atmosphere. American scientists have defended them as not being likely to cause permanent disturbances.

Gardener in Statutory Rape Charge

CATHEDRAL CITY — A 24-year-old gardener here was apprehended Saturday afternoon east of Indio on charges of Statutory rape of a 15-year-old Palm Springs girl. In custody in Indio county jail is Hector Manuel Perez, 24, of 38-216 Eagle Drive here. Sheriff's Sgt. William Pernett reported that Perez was arrested at 4:15 p.m. Saturday three miles east of Indio, apparently enroute out of state. The alleged rape reportedly occurred in the Wonder Palms area early Saturday morning. The mother of the victim had advised sheriff's officers Saturday evening that her daughter was missing from the family home in Palm Springs.

Springs Resident In Utah Hospital

Word has been received here that M. G. (White) Mead, 73 years, Palm Springs, was taken critically ill on his trip to Montana and is now in a hospital at Salt Lake City, Utah. Completing recovery, he will return to Palm Springs with the assistance of his son, who will be traveling to Salt Lake City from Calgary, British Columbia.

Coachella Man Found Scalded

COACHELLA — 35-year-old man who may have died from a stroke was found severely scalded in his home bathtub here late Sunday. Indio sheriff's deputies reported today. Richard James DeFluiter, resident of house number four in the County Water District complex here, was found dead at 9 p.m. Sunday by his wife, Norma. DeFluiter was lying in a tub full of hot water, with only his feet protruding from the tub, sheriff's investigators reported. A post-mortem is slated in Indio today to determine the actual cause of death.

Court Extends River Suit Talk

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court today ordered more arguments next term on the controversy between Arizona and California over division of Colorado River water.

The court scheduled six more hours for the arguments on Monday, Oct. 8, the first business day of the new term. Chief Justice Earl Warren, a Californian, did not participate in today's action.

Laughton Is Taken to Hospital

NEW YORK (UPI) — Noted stage and screen actor Charles Laughton is in Memorial Hospital for Cancer and Allied Diseases today undergoing a medical check-up.

His manager, Bob Hulter, said Laughton, 62, entered the hospital Sunday after an old back injury had become aggravated and his doctor suggested a complete check-up.

Hulter said Laughton has been bothered by the injury for about 20 years, and about two or three weeks ago twisted his back and set off the condition again.

Woman Driver Injured in One Car Mishap

CATHEDRAL CITY — Early this morning, Dena James, 33, of 68-608 "E" St. in this city, sustained serious face lacerations and a broken left arm when the auto she was driving rammed into a power pole on Canyon Drive just north of A street, according to the California Highway Patrol.

The CHP report indicated that the driver of the vehicle side-swiped one power pole before running into the second pole causing a great deal of damage to the auto and sending the driver to the Desert Hospital where she was hospitalized following emergency treatment for her injuries.

Loiterer Flew Away, Return Expected in Fall

A loitering suspect flew away from Palm Springs police at 11:52 a.m. Sunday, but officers have been alerted to expect him back in October or November.

Officer Larry Sieh responded to a call from restaurant operator Johnny Mitchell Sunday, advising that a big wild goose was walking at North Palm Canyon Drive and San Marco Way. The goose was unable to fly, Mitchell said.

"Officer Sieh advises the bird can fly, just took off, heading out of town, was given a floater," the police bulletin said today.

"Humane officers advise M. O. (method of operation) of this suspect may be expected to return in October or November. Be on the lookout at that time," the entry concluded.

Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday at 10 a.m. for Charles J. Houser at the Palm Springs Mortuary with the Rev. Charles Brown, officiating and interment at the Desert Memorial Park.

Houser, 62, died Friday at his home in Tramview Trailer Park. A native of Virginia, he is survived by his wife, Tess; a brother, Carlos, of Lebanon, Ind.; and Mrs. Callie Kersey, of Bronsburg, Ind., his sister.

Houser, owner of a trailer towing service, had been a resident of Palm Springs for the past 17 years.

Reds in Appeal and Warning on Atom Shot

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union urged the United States to call off its high altitude nuclear test only hours before it was scheduled to be held and warned it would take "appropriate measures" to safeguard its security.

The Russian warning came in an official government statement broadcast over Moscow Radio Sunday night.

"Pay heed to the lawful demands of the people and give up conducting tests at high altitudes," the statement said.

The Soviet government said it deemed it necessary to "draw the attention of all countries and peoples to the intentions of the U.S.A. to take extremely dangerous action by transferring the nuclear arms race to outer space."

The statement said U. S. high altitude tests could have "fatal consequences." The Russians charged that the nuclear explosion in space would hinder the flight of spacemen, disrupt radio communications and alter weather conditions.

High Court OKs Suit Against Desert College

Hearing Ordered In Hank Gogerty Taxpayer's Suit

VOTERS... TAXPAYERS!!!

IRRESPONSIBLE MANAGEMENT MUST BE STOPPED!!!

This headline from the Daily Desert Sun tells the story of what happens when careless thinking is at the helm of any group that spends your money.

Sparked by Bill Cook, the Board of Trustees of the Coachella Valley Junior College District, according to the California State Supreme Court went ahead "at its own peril" and have already pledged nearly FOUR MILLION DOLLARS OF YOUR MONEY to construct the College of The Desert... even though they knew a Court action against construction was pending, and that they knew an adverse decision might be rendered against their action.

This Bill Cook is the man who seeks now to SPEND YOUR MONEY as a member of the County Board of Supervisors. Do you want this kind of loose thinking... this loose handling of YOUR MONEY?

This Committee is opposed to such wanton DISREGARD OF TAXPAYER RIGHTS AND PROTECTION.

On June Fifth — PROTECT YOUR INTERESTS — elect a capable man for Supervisor — a man who is qualified and will not carelessly SQUANDER YOUR MONEY... and not for a man who has demonstrated that he will waste YOUR hard earned dollars.

Even if this suit fails... it will have COST YOU THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS in Court and legal expense.

No man who heedlessly ignores such basic danger as has always been inherent in construction of the College of the Desert in the face of pending litigation is qualified to be your Supervisor. But... this candidate didn't care. He GAMBLER YOUR MONEY AWAY.

Marine Hospital Expanding

TWENTY NINE PALMS — The construction of a new structure to the Marine Corps Station Hospital and the renovation of the present facilities, to cost in excess of $1 million has begun.

By the fall of 1963, the new addition will be completed and ready for occupancy. The new hospital addition will be adjoined to the present temporary building which when completed will provide over 32,000 square feet of space.

Plans for the new hospital were drawn by the architectural firm of Kallionos, Klingerman and Layne of Los Angeles. The B. W. Horn Construction Firm was awarded the contract to build the addition.

Better Care

The facility will provide more extensive and better medical and surgical care for military personnel and their dependents.

Additional bed space is one of the advantages of the construction as well as a refinement and increase in surgical, medical and obstetric capabilities.

Some of the features of the new hospital include:

A complete food service department and dining room within the hospital itself.

Semi-private accommodations for dependents as well as a limited number of pediatric beds.

A military ward with more than ample bed space and semi-private and private accommodations for military personnel.

Family Clinic

A recovery room that will function as an intensive therapy unit for seriously ill or injured patients as well as an anesthesia recovery area following surgery and delivery.

A well equipped eye, ear, nose and throat clinic.

A physical therapy department and a completely redesigned and enlarged pharmacy and laboratory.

The outpatient clinic presently housed in the family clinic and a sick call for Marine personnel will occupy spaces within the hospital.

A conference room and medical library is in the plans for the educational use of the doctors, nurses, and hospital corpsmen. There will be private offices and examining rooms for all doctors.

Doomsday Warnings Seen By Billy in Stock Skid

CHICAGO (UPI) — Evangelist Billy Graham Sunday said he saw warnings of doomsday in last week's stock market skid and crisis in Southeast Asia.

Graham was to speak tonight on "Problems of the American Home" when he begins the sixth night of his Chicago Crusade, which he called one of the most successful ever. The revival meetings are being held at the giant McCormick Place Convention Hall.

An afternoon session Sunday drew an overflow crowd of 44,000, of which 915 stepped forward to make "decisions for Christ."

The first five days of the crusade have drawn a total of 166-

000 persons and resulted in 4,650 decisions.

Graham said Sunday that God may be warning men that "the end of our age is near."

Graham pointed to last week's sharp drop in the stock market, the crisis in Southeast Asia and Russia's possession of the hydrogen bombs as possible warnings from God.

Soviet Bloc Leaders Gathering in Moscow

MOSCOW (UPI) — East German Communist chief Walter Ulbricht arrived from Berlin today, the first of the Soviet bloc leaders coming to Moscow for Tuesday's Communist summit meeting.

The meeting was expected to discuss aid, trade, and economic cooperation, as well as wider political questions. The Berlin crisis and East Germany's present economic difficulties also were expected to play a major role in the talks.

The meeting of the Council for Mutual Economic Assistance is scheduled to begin Wednesday. A two-paragraph announcement in the Communist party newspaper Pravda said it would deal with economic questions.

It was announced, however, that party first secretaries as well as heads of government the bloc countries would attend. This led western observers to predict that the meeting would become a full-fledged Communist summit conference to co-ordinate strategy on major world issues.

Members of council are Bulgaria, Hungary, East Germany, Poland, Rumania, Czechoslovakia, Albania and the Soviet Union.

Winners

NEW YORK (UPI)—Two opposite types of television programs were the most highly rated in the 1962 poll run by the American Council for Better Broadcasts.

Winners were "Sing Along with Mitch," and "The Huntley-Brinkley Report," both on NBC-TV.

Don't Short Change Our Children! They Need Our Help!

GRACING the party table is this Sparklin' Fresh Fruit Salad Mold. It's tangy buttermilk base makes the flavor-perfect background for succulent fruits and whipped cream, and it's right in order for June Dairy Month.

Story Taste On Television Still Simple

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) Children's tastes in stories remain unsophisticated—despite the amount of Western and crime show fare constantly offered them.

This is the belief of a woman who helped to pioneer children's programming on radio.

At one time or another, whether with your children or when you yourself were a child, you probably have seen or heard Irene Wicker's dramatized stories. As the "Singing Lady," she is rounding out 30 years of broadcasting programs for children.

Miss Wicker started her radio career in 1932 at WGN in Chicago, first doing nursery rhymes and later developing the program into stories to go with music.

Today, she's still the "Singing Lady" on New York City's municipal station, WNYC. Her program won a Peabody Award in 1961, one more award in the long list she has garnered in her steady career.

Favorites Don't Change

"The requests from the children are the same now as they were in the early days," she said in an interview. "Children love fantasy... the world of make-believe."

"I think many children are frightened at some of the violence on television. Even some of the fairy stories aren't good for hearing on the air—they're too frightening. It is not the same as if the child were sitting there with you in a living room as you read."

"Oh, there are some children who think my type of program is sissy stuff," conceded Miss Wicker who often has been billed as the woman of a thousand voices because of her versatile larynx.

"And not every child wants to go off in a dream world... but most of them do. I always explain if it is a true story they're about to hear, or whether it's a legend. I don't believe in trying to fool a child. And I won't tell them a story using incorrect grammar."

Miss Wicker said the bulk of her listeners is in the 6 to 12 age bracket, but that a lot of adults also tune her in. She knows—they write fan letters. So do the children.

From the requests, she figures that the all-time favorites with the youngsters are Cinderella,

Glamor Foods to Pick Up Salads

Glamor dairy foods like whipped cream, sour cream and cottage cheese lend an exciting pick-up to fruit salads — for June Dairy Month, especially.

But buttermilk, though not as often used, adds its own flair of sophistication to fruits in salad, too. Sparklin' Fresh Fruit Salad boasts tangy buttermilk with fruit in a gelatin base. And it's the zestiness of the buttermilk that makes this salad so unusually good. Tart lemon juice sparks the mold while fresh green grape slivers, juicy orange segments and succulent pineapple bits add delicious fruitiness.

Whipped cream enters the picture, too, transforming the mixture into a mousse-like salad. This cloud-like dairy food adds a softly delicate touch, lending velvety texture to the mold. This salad is as refreshing to see as to eat.

Serve it on your buffet table, or as a dinner salad. Whether your main dish be plain or fancy, this easy-to-make ahead salad adds a perfectly charming gourmet touch.

Salad mold, 7-cup; yield: 8-10 servings.

3 tablespoons (3 envelopes) unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup sugar
1-3 cup fresh lemon juice
2 1/4 cups buttermilk
3/4 cup fresh sliced grapes
1 cup diced orange sections
1 cup (8-oz. can) crushed pineapple with juice
1 cup whipping cream
Salad greens
Fresh grapes

In saucepan combine gelatin and sugar; stir in lemon juice. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until gelatin is softened and sugar is dissolved. Stir in buttermilk; heat a few minutes more. Chill to jelly-like consistency; stir in grapes, orange sections and crushed pineapple. Whip cream until stiff, fold into fruit mixture. Pour into salad mold; cover and chill until firm. Unmold on salad greens; garnish with orange sections and fresh grapes.

Kathie Dix Goes Visiting

Kathie Dix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grayson Dix, 2004 Calle Felicia, is on a month's visit with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Finn of Hollywood, Fla.

Miss Dix, 18, is a '61 graduate of Palm Springs High School and has been attending Mt. San Antonio College in Pomona for the past term.

Sleeping Beauty, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, and Rumpelstiltskin.

The career of this tiny blonde with big brown eyes also extends to writing children's operas, recording music and stories for children, and children's books. Just published is "Young Master Artists" (Bobbs-Merrill), which is a compilation of the biographies of the childhoods of 12 famous painters from Botticelli to Picasso.

She finds time for writing, plus occasional appearances as an actress, plus working with children's professional theater on television because her WNYC show occupies just one-half hour segment each Sunday.

"Used to be, the Singing Lady would be on five times a week, for half an hour each, plus another half on Sunday," she said. "We used to say that we put together the equivalent of two Broadway shows each week."

Born in Quincy, Ill., Miss Wicker in private life is married to Victor Hammer, who runs the Hammer Art Galleries in New York. She has two children, a daughter Nancy, and a son Walter Charles, by a previous marriage. Her son, an RCAF pilot, was killed in World War II.

Homemaker's Fashionettes

Necklace lengths are shortening as a reflection of the new, more fitted and close-to-the-body silhouette. The 27 inches are being replaced by 22 inches and 19 inch bibs. The close flat look of a collar is the new shape for chokers.

The man in a striped suit won't necessarily be behind bars come spring. Men's Wear reports that the fashionable John Doe probably will be seen in the Easter parade sporting a suit of chalk stripes, pencil stripes, broken stripes—on gray or dark navy.

It's the shape up front that counts in spring coats and suits, Women's Wear Daily reports. Front shaping moving toward the bustline is the identifying feature.

Water Cookery

FIREPLACE, N. Y. (UPI) — Take a tip on fish cookery from a Bonnak — William C. Johnston. Water broil if you want a moist, tender dish.

Johnston, a resident of this tiny Long Island fishing village says his family has used this cooking method for generations.

Here's his recipe for water broiling. Lay fish fillets in a shallow pan, sprinkle generously with dried bread crumbs — do not substitute cracker or corn meal — and dot with butter or margarine. Add water to pan until it reaches the level of the edges of the fillets — about 1/4 to 1/2 inch. Place 3 or 4 inches from flame of preheated 550-degree broiler. Broil until crust is golden brown—about 5 minutes for a 1/2-inch fillet.

Horoscope Forecast

By CAROL RIGHTER

Tuesday, June 5, 1962

GENERAL TENDENCIES: This is not a very important day or evening, but you can get many of the little details of every-day life completed, especially those indicated below as good for your own sign. Be sure that you do not allow yourself the luxury of going off on any emotional tangent — and particularly avoid any feeling of self-pity now, or it could be most unfortunate.

ARIES (Birthdays from Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) — Focus your attention on the home and see that you get it more operative and charming. Come to better understanding with close ties by quiet discussions. Don't hold grudges.

TAURUS (Birthdays from Apr. 20 to May 20) — Ideal day to confer with associates and iron out any differences. Fine for shopping, making calls, writing, etc. Get hobbies perfected in P. M.

GEMINI (Birthdays from May 21 to June 21) — Delve into all sorts of important financial affairs and reports, insurances, etc., so that you can plan to have a greater abundance and increase property holdings. Keep a budget.

MOON CHILDREN (Birthdays from June 22 to July 21) — Study appearance early in A. M., and make improvements where necessary. Then set up appointments and off for a gala day and evening of fun, social betterment.

LEO (Birthdays from July 22 to Aug. 21) — Go to the experts in your field of endeavor and have them give you pointers you need at this time. Be vitally interested. Evening fine culturally. Exercise before retiring.

VIRGO (Birthdays from Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) — Know exactly what your ambitions, desires are and then rid yourself of what is outmoded, superfluous. Be discriminating. Have fun socially in P. M.

LIBRA (Birthdays from Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) — Study well what pertains to bettering your daily work and be sure you handle outside affairs wisely. Improve credit, good will.

SCORPIO (Birthdays from Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) — Read your paper and other reliable sources for the information you require at this time. Also, get ideas from new friends, those of more experience than you. Be alert.

SAGITTARIUS (Birthdays from Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) — Listen carefully to ideas of bankers, experts, informed personnel, since benefits can be derived from them. Give loved one similar attention in P. M.

CAPRICORN (Birthdays from Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) — Sit down and thresh out matters of policy with associates and competitors as well today so that future operations can be more successful.

AQUARIUS (Birthdays from Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) — By efficient application, you find that all outside or home affairs can be handled quickly and well. Then be sure you take health treatments you need in P. M.

PISCES (Birthdays from Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) — This can be a particularly happy day for you, be sure you look up only those persons you most enjoy and admire. Dress nicely, then off to the pleasures you enjoy.

$5,143 Burglary Loss Reported in Palm Springs

A theft of men's jewelry and clothing totaling $5,143 value was reported to Palm Springs police by Murray Indictor, guest at the Vaughan Arms Apartment, 168 W. Arenas Road.

"RACERS" IN PRODUCTION HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Mark Damon, Bill Campbell and Luarna Denny, a fellow Los Angeles man staying at the Vaughan Arms. Jewelry taken include a diamond ring, a sapphire ring, and a man's watch, Indictor said. Investigators reported the thefts may have occurred during early morning hours, while Indictor and Denny were at breakfast.

Safe Work At Hospital Earns Rebate

Safe working records at the Desert Hospital has earned a 29 per cent refund of workmen's compensation premiums for the year ending July 1, 1961.

Earl R. Howard, general manager of the state compensation insurance fund, wrote the Desert Hospital District that the $1,541.16 refund "resulted directly from the interest and active participation" of all employees in accident prevention.

Total premiums for the year were $5,314.34, leaving a net cost to the district after refund of $3,773.18. Robert Henwood, hospital administrator, forwarded Howard's "sincerely congratulations" for the safety record to all hospital employees.

Blind Flee Fire

NEW YORK (UPI) — One-hundred-seventy blind workers used overhead guide lines to escape safely Tuesday when fire broke out on the top floor of the five-story Lighthouse Industries building.

The fire started in a stack of cartons in the factory, which produces brooms, mops and brushes. The blind workers returned to their jobs later.

Things Are Happeing In Television Planning

NEW YORK (UPI)—Gale Gordon will stay on as the new Mr. Wilson for the 1962-63 season of "Dennis the Menace" on CBS-TV. He appeared in the last few episodes this season as the next-door neighbor of the moppet, being introduced as a visiting brother of the original Mr. Wilson, played by Joseph Kearns. The latter died early this year. Gordon will have his own Mrs. Wilson next season, with Sylvia Fields in the role.

CBS will move "The Alvin Show" from its season-long Wednesday evening spot to 10 a.m. Saturdays for a summer of reruns beginning June 23. Plans are for the cartoon series to continue at the new time through next season, but without any new episodes being made.

Doug McClure, one of the triumvirate of the canceled "Checkmate" series, will be employed next season in the role of the cowboy Trampas in the new 90-minute NBC-TV weekly western based on the famous novel, "The Virginian." It seems a shame that someone doesn't take portly Sebastian Cabot, the bearded Dr. Hyatt of "Checkmate," and build a half-hour scientific detective series around him. Or something. Cabot is a most urbane and persuasive player.

Jim Backus, the actor who will host the revived "Talent Scouts" on CBS starting July 3, and his wife, Henny, have written another humorous book about the things that have happened to them. The title is "What Are You Doing After the Orgy?" Two years ago they brought out "Rocks on the Roof."

The background music for the forthcoming series of hour-long documentary video films called "Years of Decision," based on the life and times of former president Harry S. Truman, will consist of an original score by Norman Delo Joio.

Red Warning

TOKYO (UPI)—Communist China has issued its 204th "serious warning" for the alleged intrusion of its air space by U.S. military planes.

Bond Issues Are Second Highest

By De VAN L. SHUMWAY

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California voters will be asked June 5 to approve the second highest total of state bond issues ever placed on a ballot in the history of the state.

The five bond issues for schools, veterans, state construction, elderly housing and parks and recreation total $970 million.

They will raise the state's authorized bonded indebtedness to $5,683,000,000.

A big share of this debt came from the $1.75 billion bond issue authorized by the voters in November, 1960.

This authorization came under the administration of Democrat Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

As a result, Republicans seized upon the bonds as an issue for the 1962 elections.

GOP Ties Up Issues

Assembly Republicans, with just enough swing votes to do so, tied up the bond issues during the 1962 legislature when Brown proposed that they be about evenly split between the primary and general elections.

At first they insisted the bond issues be placed on the November ballot when Brown will be opposing either Richard M. Nixon or Joseph C. Shell, Republicans, in a bid for re-election.

Finally, a compromise was reached to place the four new bond issues and a fifth one approved by the 1961 legislature on the June ballot.

Brown cited what he called two "remarkable facts" to answer anyone with "lingering doubts as to California's fiscal health" despite the huge time-pay plan: "California has the lowest net bond debt among nine comparable industrial states and ranks 37th in the nation. California ranks 27th among the states in tax rate per $100 of personal income."

Bonds Alarm Nixon

But Nixon, supporting GOP efforts to get the bonds together on one ballot, charged that California was "already approaching a yearly sale of bonds which will force us to pay far higher rates of interest than normal."

No. 1 on the June ballot will be the $200 million school bond program for loans to local school districts.

Other issues on the ballot: No.

2 a $250 million issue to continue California's program of farm and home loans to veterans; No. 3, a $270 million program for state building construction; No. 4, a $100 million bond for low cost elderly housing; and No. 5, $150 million for parks and recreation.

The sixth proposition on the June ballot will, if approved, extend daylight saving time for one month—from the last Sunday in September until the final Sunday in October.

New Company

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—James Stapleton, Paul Lukather and George Sawaya have been signed to a three-year, non-exclusive contract by Newton Arnold and Michael du Pont's new company, Glenwood-Neve Productions.

The company's first production, "Hands of a Stranger," will star Stapleton and Lukather and feature Sawaya. The three actors also will have roles in the Korean War story, "Glory, Hell!" to be filmed later this summer.

A few years back, Powell's singing career waned. He made a sensational comeback playing tough detectives. Then he branched out into television production and now heads Four Star Productions Inc., which operates out of Republic Studios.

Television Antenna To Replace Bowsprit

GENOA, Italy (UPI)—The ship of the future will carry a new symbol onto the high seas—a television receiver to pick up programs from space. The receiver will be mounted on the bow, where vessels in centuries past proudly bore a bowsprit adorned with sculptured figures of gods, birds, beasts or grotesques.

The ton-and-a-half television receiver which will pick up programs relayed from space satellites the United States plans to orbit this year, is not the only pioneering feature of the "Oceanic," the new flagship of the Home Lines fleet, in construction here.

Impressive Dimensions

The "Oceanic" is 774 feet long and has 11 decks, along which there are 590 cabins, 18 salons, a chapel, a gymnasium, a playroom and a nursery. The liner will carry 1650 passengers. It is powered by motors set in the stern. The "Oceanic" has a speed of more than 23 knots.

Another new feature of this "Ship of Tomorrow" are special fins to prevent it from pitching. Until now, liners of equivalent size have only been provided with fins to prevent "rolling", or the rocking motion of a ship from side to side. The rudder-like fins are mounted to port and starboard at the point where the ship is broadest.

The excellent results obtained from this pair of fins surprised the engineers of the "Oceanic" to try reducing another inconvenience of ocean-going liners the up and down motion on the bow-stern axis called "pitching."

In experiments in hydro-dynamic tanks the engineers have obtained results that surprised specialists in the field. The maximum "pitch" registered in experiments was about 15 feet rising and falling, which, for a ship of the "Oceanic's" length is negligible.

Say Tests Rougher

Besides, experts said, it is rare that the sea presents conditions as rough as those artificially created in the experimental tanks. Reduction of the liner's pitching motion is designed not only to add to passenger comfort but also to give maximum stability to the ship at speeds of more than 23 knots.

The name "Oceanic" was taken from another liner, built in 18 by the White Star Lines, also known for luxury and speed. "Oceanic" fits in with the names of sister ships in the Home Lines fleet such as "Atlantic" and "Homeric."

Construction of the liner began Oct. 2, 1961. It will be launched next summer and ready for a maiden cruise at the end of 1963.

Happy Officer Sings to His Jail-Bound

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—Policeman George Olen Kent, composer of more than 50 songs, often sings to prisoners as he drives them to jail in the paddy wagon. "Lots of times they beat on the doors and say they don't mind going to jail but they shouldn't have to listen to my singing," Kent said with a laugh.

He specializes in "country pop" music and has made several records — singing and accompanying himself on the guitar. Kent has been a policeman four years. His duties include driving the paddy wagon, dispatching and jailing.

The baritone is one singer who does not have to worry if he is off key. He has a captive audience.

One dog spent three years at the Sullivan home.

The business, like many, started as a hobby. John used to operate a granite quarry business — thus the name Bedrock — and then started raising Boxer dogs.

One or two neighbors asked him to take care of their dogs while they were on vacation and then someone from one of the nearby naval bases asked him to ship their dog to their home in Alabama.

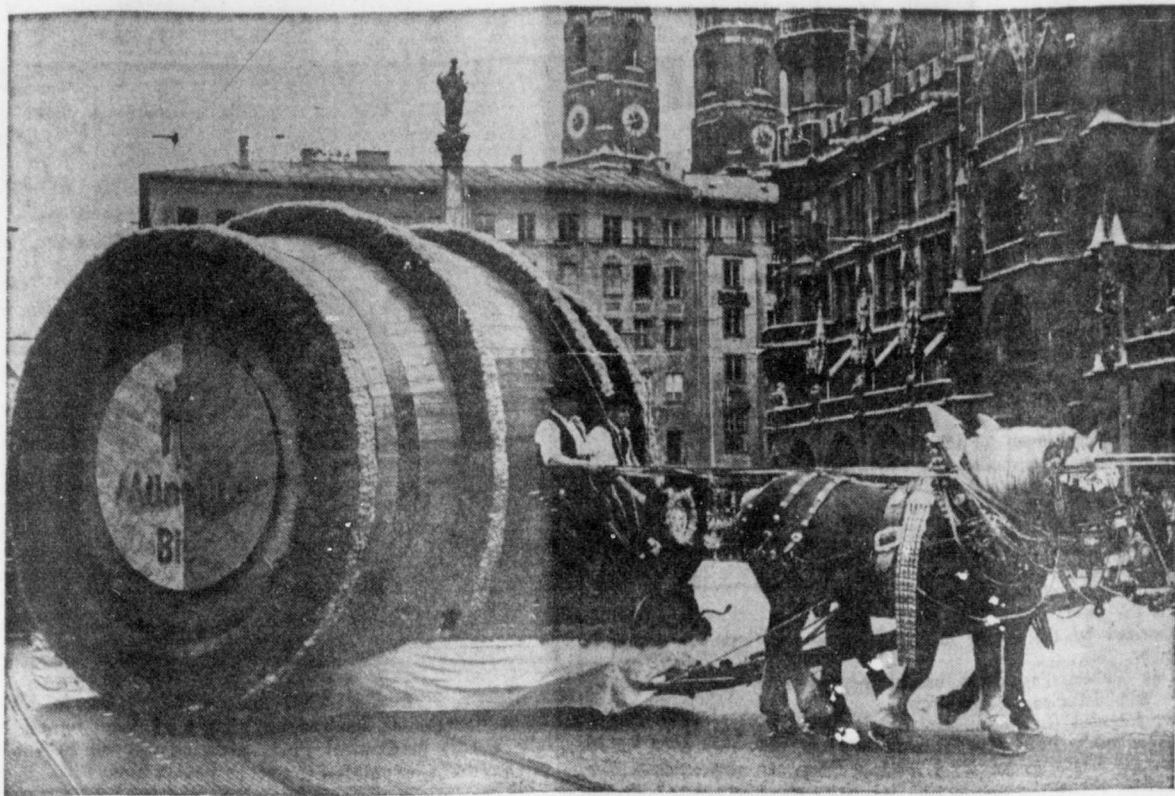

The Sullivans found there isn't too much competition in the business of flying dogs.

Worry May Cost You Your Hair

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — If you're losing hair fast as an old shaggy dog maybe you worry and fret too much, a University of Pennsylvania researcher theorizes.

Dr. Albert M. Kligman, professor of dermatology at the University's medical school, told of a man and a woman who lost hair from worry.

He terms this "telogen effluvium" — or the shedding of "resting" hairs.

The man was tried three times for a murder but escaped the hot seat each time on legal technicalities. The fourth time in court he was convicted of first degree murder and shortly thereafter began losing hair at a fast rate.

He escaped the chair eight weeks later on more legal maneuvers and, by the time he was pardoned, had grown a mane a beatnik would envy.

The woman, disturbed about prospects of a serious operation, worried herself out of a head of hair and finger and toe nails as well, all of which grew back after the operation.

"Resting" hairs, Kligman said, occur when 15,000 hairs of a normal head have stopped growing to rest a bit. He theorizes a heavy loss of hair may be "a direct result of excessive anxiety."

However, he emphasized such a phenomena is only one of many causes of temporary hair loss "and certainly not a common one." He cited pregnancy and the use of drugs as more frequent causes.

Vet Pilot Retires

CORAL GABLES, Fla. (UPI)—Capt. Thomas F. Jardine has retired from Pan American-Grace Airways after flying more than 30,000 hours and 7,500,000 miles—equal to 300 trips around the world or 31 trips to the moon.

Jardine retired at the age of 60 after 33 years of flying over South America.

Oldsters Enjoy Time At Painting, Crafts

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (UPI)—Every Thursday more than a dozen oldsters in the Providence area look forward to dabbling in paint, shaping copper or doing any one of a number of similar things.

They turn out wall plaques, artificial flowers, tile ash trays, hand tooled leather wallets and most anything else.

These people, most of them over 65, form the nucleus of a hobby workshop group at the Providence Recreation Department's Golden Age Center. The city provides them with an instructor, Miss Ruth Lamoureux, a building in which to meet and most of the basic materials used in their work.

Make Copper Plaque

One of their more eye-catching products is an eight by 12-inch wall plaque formed out of copper. This is made by placing a thin sheet of copper over a plastic mold and, with a wooden stylus, pressing out the particular scene to create a three-dimensional plaque.

The plaque then is polished, oxidized to darken the recessed areas and polished again to clean off the raised portion. One such product would take a Golden Ager about four hours to complete.

The plaque is framed, usually in white cardboard. One creative student, however, finished hers in bamboo.

One of the more popular pastimes is free-hand oil painting. The first step normally consists of a period of filling in outlines with the aid of numbers.

Begin With Numbers

"The numbers give them an idea of color sense and the practice of working with a brush," Miss Lamoureux said. "They quickly go from numbers to free hand painting... they enjoy it more."

The hobbyists paint not only on canvas, but on trays, cigarette boxes and other items.

TV in Review

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — "Oh, I love that! Wasn't that adorable?" Quick now. Who talks like that? That's right. Dinah Shore.

But despite her natural feminine weakness for yapping too much, her final NBC-TV show of the season Friday night was a generally rollicking hour, thanks to a happy choice of three guests: Robert Preston of "The Music Man," Rita Moreno of "West Side Story" and Vic Damone of Beverly Hills.

It was one of the most attractive and integrated foursomes of the year. Best of all, the sophistication of Preston, Miss Moreno and Damone — all explosive song-belters — prevented the show from descending to the cute, adorable level, which happens too often when Miss Shore is dominant. In such adult company, Dinah rose to the occasion and was in an easy, swinging mood. In lovely voice, she sang "Buttons and Bows" to a clever Latin beat, walloped "76 Trombones" with Preston and hoofed a charming soft shoe with Damone.

But the stopper of the evening was the ebullient Preston, as Prof. Harold Hill, singing his fast-talking "Trouble" number from "The Music Man." If you weren't grinning from ear to ear when he finished, you should be investigated by the Un-American Activities Committee.

Unfortunately, after the number was over, Dinah felt compelled to gush, "Gee, that was wonderful, Bob." Gee, Dinah. Nuts, Dinah. Miss Shore, who does her unceasing best to make everything antiseptically wholesome, somehow managed to precede Miss Moreno's sexy Latin dance sequence with a commercial for National Dairy Month, which is what this is, in case you didn't know.

Miss Moreno, an Oscar winner, does not look like the kind of girl who drinks milk, and her dance number furthered this belief. She is, as they used to say in Hollywood, a Latin bombshell type—tantalizing, humorous and the kind of girl who makes you happy you're a boy. Her voice isn't the best, but who cares?

It was this dance number, I might add, that Miss Shore chose to call "adorable."

Dinah, Preston, Miss Moreno and Damone did two fine four-some numbers: one a knockout, harmonic spoof on that song about how to make a hit record, the other a thing called "Teamwork." I wonder when someone is going to write a good anti-togetherness song extolling the virtues of standing on one's own feet.

Damone also contributed a strong, stand-out version of that chillingly beautiful, almost reverent love song, "Maria."

Miss Shore's dairy commercial brought to mind the fact that Bob Newhart lost his sponsor because he didn't help his milk sales too much. Miss Shore shamelessly went through a number on the order of "Take Me Out to the Dairy." For the first time, I felt almost relieved about Newhart's situation.

The Chamel Swim: Thirteen one-hour versions of "The Twilight Zone" go into production at MGM next month. Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy guests on NBC-TV's "Today" show Monday. Eve Arden and Chuck Connors visit CBS-TV's "Password" Tuesday.

The F. Scott Fitzgerald short story, "Crazy Sunday," has been bought for NBC-TV's "Dick Powell Show" next season. Linda Darnell narrates a planned folk music video series. Carol Burnett is the celebrity guest on CBS-TV's "I've Got a Secret" Monday. The winners of NBC-TV's "Championship Debate" take on a team from England's Oxford University in a one-hour special July 3. Same network airs a special on mental illness June 22. Gisele Mackenzie revisits Bob Newhart's show Wednesday on NBC-TV.

TELEVISION TONIGHT

TOP SHOW TONIGHT—Bob Hope plays a comic named Bob Hope on "The Danny Thomas Show" at 9:30 p.m. over CBS-TV. Hope and Danny, go to a small town for a rest, relaxation and to get away from autograph seekers—but they can't stand it when they succeed. Nobody asks either of them for an autograph because nobody recognizes them—dark glasses or no dark glasses.

Flying Steeplejack

Hovering over staging area at Hudson, N.Y., a Sikorsky S-58 helicopter patiently "sits in the air" as linemen attach tower section to the cable sling.

Directed by teammate, whose shoulder and leg show, pilot maneuvers helicopter into position over tower so linemen can climb aboard for quick trip to shore.

This aerial view shows the construction site at Hudson, N.Y., where helicopter (lower right) is being utilized as flying crane in assembly of 306-foot towers.

Pilot Frank N. Minjoy waits for signal from tower crew to fly up another section.

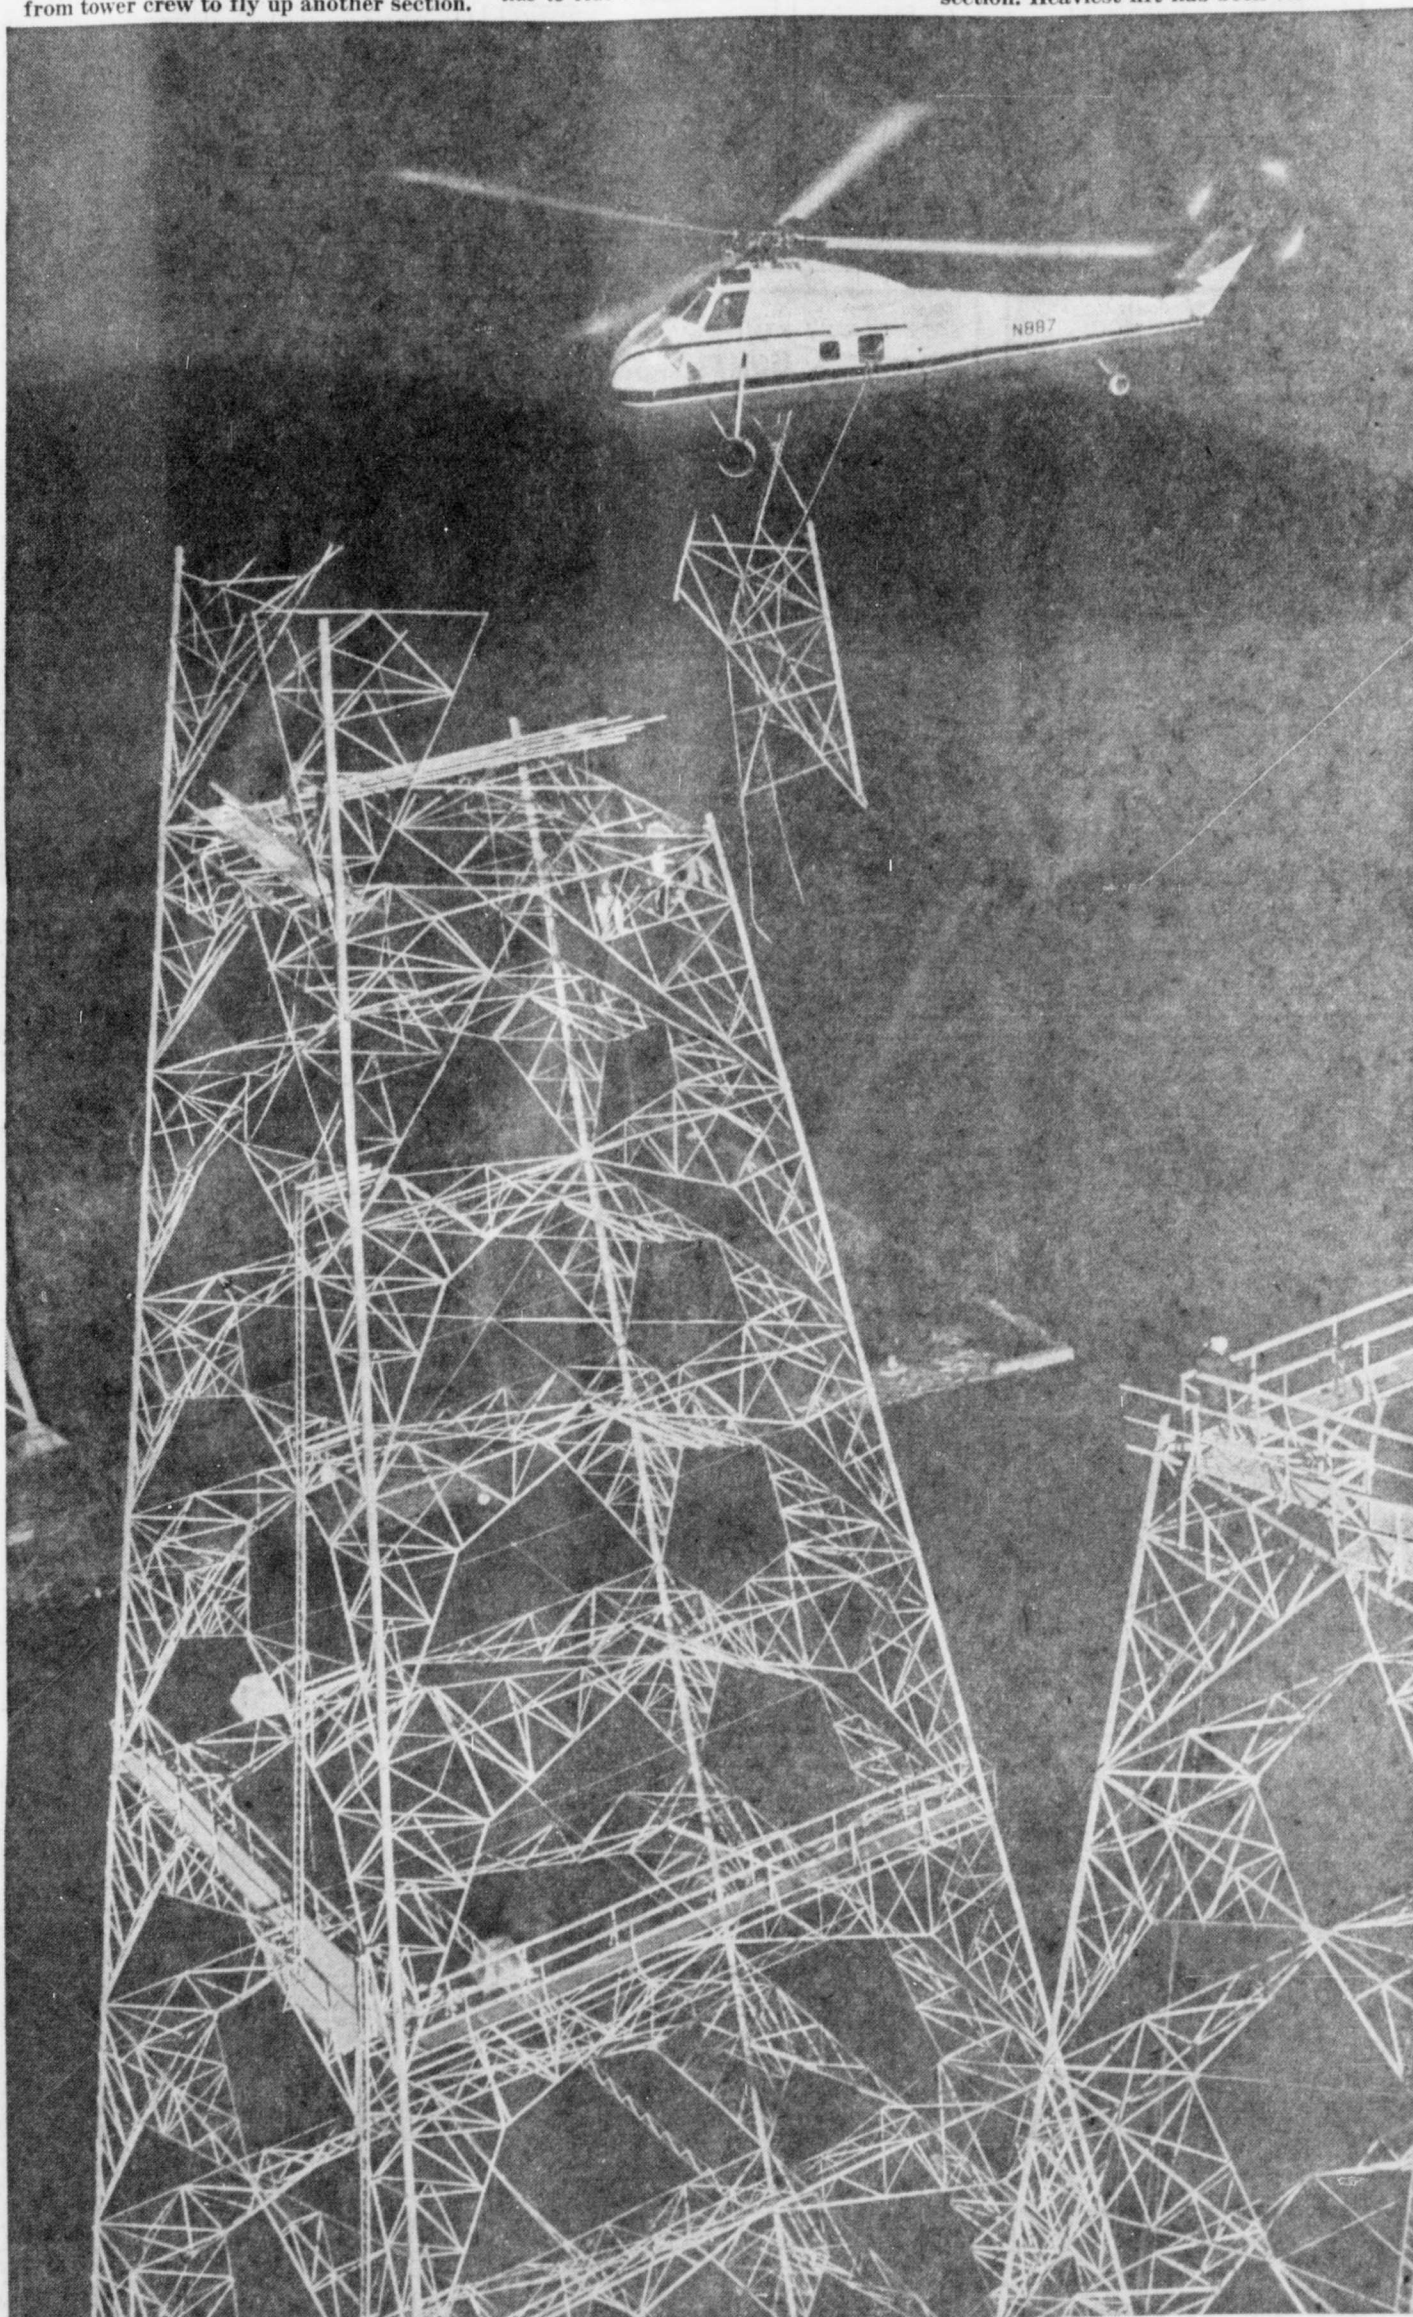

FRANK N. MINJOY, 35, is considered by many to be the world's greatest helicopter pilot. Born in Australia of Chinese parents, Mr. Minjoy is using a helicopter as a flying crane in the construction of four steel transmission line towers that will carry 345,000-volt circuits across the Hudson River at Hudson, N. Y. The job, being done for the Niagara Mohawk Power Company, is the first assembly of steel towers ever attempted by helicopter.

Mr. Minjoy, a former member of the Royal Australian Air Force, can fly almost every type of aircraft. On his present assignment he is using a Sikorsky S-58 helicopter. Picking up pre-assembled steelwork as it is trucked in, the pilot flies it into position over the tower where linemen bolt the section into place.

At lunchtime, Mr. Minjoy holds his 'copter in mid-air alongside the tower while the linemen scamper aboard for a quick flight back to shore. Cool and daring in the air, Mr. Minjoy ruefully admits he is a nervous wreck when he has to ride a taxi.

Pilot must know weight of each section. Heaviest lift has been ton.

Upper section of tower nearing completion is slowly maneuvered into position by 'copter pilot Minjoy as linemen prepare to grab trailing hand lines and secure section. Despite pioneering nature of the work, pilot considers job "routine."

THE DESERT SUN PUBLISHING CO. ESTABLISHED 1927

George E. Cameron Jr., President

Carl W. Schooss, Publisher

You'll Have Your Say Tomorrow

The candidates have had their say. Tomorrow it is your turn, as a voter, to express your opinion in the voting booth.

You probably have given some serious consideration of the qualifications of the various men seeking your endorsement at the polls.

The Desert Sun has, and believes that on the local level, our district representative in the Congress and the county offices which are at stake in the primary, its thinking should be passed on to you.

Because of circumstances arising during the past few weeks, the possibilities of a Republican congressman from this, the 38th California district, have been greatly enhanced.

The importance of a wise decision on the choice of a Republican candidate is therefore equally that much greater.

On the basis of past performances and ability, we believe that Pat Martin, Riverside attorney, is best qualified to represent us in Congress and has the necessary know-how to best meet our needs in Washington.

Ever since he was drafted by responsible business men, agriculturalists and others in the 38th district campaign, he has toured the district, studying its needs and wishes. As a result he has the thorough knowledge to ably represent his constituents in the House.

Pat Martin should be named to head the Republican ticket in tomorrow's campaign. In the general election in November he will not only have the enthusiastic support of the Republican party but his ability and record will attract many Democratic voters.

We don't believe the district can go wrong with Pat Martin.

There are two brisk contests for county offices, that of supervisor from the fourth district, the Desert Empire's district, and for the office of sheriff.

Four are seeking to unseat Joe Rice as sheriff. We haven't always seen eye to eye with Sheriff Rice but an examination of his record in office causes us to believe that he should be re-elected.

With seven candidates in the field, the question of which one would best represent the fourth district on the county board of supervisors is a bit more complicated.

The fourth district has a wide variety of interests. The office should go to a man well versed in the desert area's needs and problems.

The Sun believes the best interests of the entire district would best be served by the election of William H. Cook of Palm Desert.

Cook has long been familiar with the district from the tourist economy in the upper Coachella Valley to the agricultural needs to the east of us. He is conversant with our educational needs. He has been a resident of the district for more than 15 years and knows it well.

Having long been active in district affairs as a civic leader, he is well known to the other members of the board of supervisors who recognize and respect his ability.

There are three seeking the office of marshal for the judicial court district. We believe Howard Poe, former Palm Springs police officer and constable, should be chosen because of his experience.

While about it, don't skip the unopposed candidates tomorrow, Assemblyman Gordon Cologne has no opponent but an X after his name would constitute an endorsement. The same holds true for Eugene Theriault, unopposed for re-election to the Municipal Court bench and the other non-partisan county offices.

But, whether you agree or not, make certain that you go to the polls to register your choice tomorrow.

In a world in which there is increased emphasis on specialization in education and there is a proliferation of snap, hobby-like college courses, it is a pleasure to read about the MacMurray Plan.

MacMurray College of Jacksonville, Ill., is dropping about 200 courses, or 40 per cent of those it previously has carried. Discontinued will be home economics, journalism, shorthand and typing . . . and similar specialties.

The main purpose is to get back to education for its own sake — to turn out well-rounded individuals with a cultural basis that will serve as a foundation for specialization. Says President Gordon Michelson:

"One of the problems of modern times is that people cannot communicate with one another. Those trained in science cannot communicate with those trained in the humanities and vice versa. We are suffering from over-specialization."

MacMurray would give each student a good grounding in the "essence of mankind's accumulated knowledge and culture over the ages." This will enable them to "live usefully and understandingly in a cosmopolitan world."

"By giving students a background in the best that has been thought and said in modern civilization," says Dr. Michelson,

"we are giving them a basis for making the choices that are required by all humans — between good and evil, the beautiful and the ugly, truth and falsehood."

There are, of course other colleges that traditionally bear down heavily on a basic liberal arts program. MacMurray is beginning a tradition, consciously and conscientiously. May its tribe increase.

"Sorry to call you this early," said the man. "But I have to be in L.A. early today. I just wanted to make sure your reservations for Thursday are in order."

"Besides, as an afternoon newspaperman, you've probably been up for an hour or more."

Ha, Ha, yourself, buddy. Not on vacation.

STARTED TO GO BACK to bed when Mrs. G. called to me. "I hear you're up. Good. Let's go over this list of things you want me to pack."

"We can probably eliminate three-fourths of the things you'll never need."

Vacation? Bah.

SPLIT PERSONALITY

THIS SIDE Of The Sun

R. F. "Phat" GRAETTINGER

Peaceful and quiet, in bed until eight. That's what I programmed as vacation's gait.

Well, you know that old guff about the best laid plans of mice and men.

I WASN'T LOOKING forward to Sunday. That's the day I always sleep in, anyway. It wouldn't be any different.

But, ah, Monday. I was looking forward eagerly to Monday. That WOULD be different.

During the ordinary workday months, that day just set the pattern for the rest of the week. Up at dawn and so on.

Not this Monday. There would be some changes made.

IT WAS CAREFULLY planned. The old routine would be tossed out of the window.

Instead of viewing the dawn with a jaundiced eye, groaning a bit, then making a valiant effort and skipping nimbly out of bed, I'd sneer at the bedside clock, roll over and yield to that delicious second sleep.

None of this sleepy brewing of a cup of coffee (instant) no reluctant scraping and nicking of the face, no foot-dragging to the job.

It was an outlook, beautiful to contemplate.

THEN CAME the dawn. I awakened, sneered at the clock rolled over as planned.

But there was no delicious second sleep. There was a little nagging worry about the job. Did I leave everything ship-shape, like people are always saying, when I left?

Seems like I forgot something. I always do.

Oh, well, if I did, they'll call me.

..IT WAS PLEASANT just lying there after that bit of reassurance. Wonderful to contemplate what was going on at The Sun office.

The girls and boys were just about then ambulating to their desks in the newsroom. Uncovering their typewriters and getting ready to wham them with the news of the day.

There'd be telephones jangling, questions reverberating, maybe an alibi or two.

And here I am, thought I, lazy with nothing to do. Peace, it's wonderful!

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN:

Dear Abby . . .

DEAR ABBY: I am heartsick. Our 17-year-old son got a 17-year-old girl in trouble. We know her parents well. This girl has been boy-crazy since she was 14 and has given her parents lots of heartaches. Since this girl claims our son is responsible for her condition, our son proposed marriage, but she turned him down. Then her father called my husband and suggested they get together and talk things over. My husband met with him and agreed there should be a wedding. Our son asked her twice again and she refused. Her father said okay, no wedding, but we must pay the hospital bill, which we agreed to.

In the meantime, the girl said she was marrying an old sweetheart of hers. Well, that marriage never took place and now, all of a sudden, in her eighth month, she is begging our son to marry her to save her from disgrace. He wants to, but his father won't let him. I say let them marry, even if it ends in divorce. Please, Abby, what should be done about this mess? —MOTHER IN THE MIDDLE

Philip Boyd, manager of the Bank of America, left for Indianapolis, Ind., where he will join Mrs. Boyd, who left a month ago, to spend the month of June.

Glenn McKinney of the Desert Forge completed an ornamental iron arch over the yard entrance to the Nora O'Sullivan home.

Through the efforts of Miss Caroline Birge, a baby scales has been presented the Community Health Center at the school house and mothers can now accurately weigh their babies.

DEAR MOTHER: The purpose of a marriage is not to "save people from disgrace." It is a serious lifetime contract. These 17-year-olds appear ill-prepared for such responsibilities. Unless a clergyman can give them a crash course in what is expected of the holy sacrament of marriage, which I doubt, I would not push too hard for a wedding. Furthermore, your boy offered to do "the right thing" when it made sense.

DEAR ABBY: There is a lady who lives in our neighborhood who is a real problem. She doesn't know how to drive and she can't park a car. Either her back end is sticking out in the street or else her front wheels are up on the curb. She has even parked on the sidewalk, and I'm not kidding. I swear I don't know how she got a driver's license. When people see her driving down the street, they pull over and give her the whole road. Shouldn't someone tell her to learn how to drive or to stop driving? I think she is a menace. —CONCERNED

DEAR CONCERNED: I'm surprised the local police haven't offered to give her a few lessons. Tip her off in the name of friendship and public safety.

DEAR ABBY: What on earth is wrong with a person who either has to monopolize the entire conversation or else stays completely out of it? She also breaks into the conversation when others are talking and changes the subject to suit herself. —F. S.

DEAR F. S.: The behavior you describe is typical of a person with defective hearing. Unless she does all the talking, she feels "out of it" because she can't hear what's going on. Encourage your friend to have her hearing tested.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "Too Young To Wed And In Trouble": Tell your parents the truth "immediately." I promise you they will help you.

Dodgers Lose, 7-5, To Phillies

Second Defeat Drops L.A. 2 1/2 Behind Giants

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Confidently breezing along with a 13-game winning streak on Saturday, the Los Angeles Dodgers today were desperately attempting to prevent going into a 3-game losing streak—and against the Philadelphia Phillies no less.

When the stubborn Phillies rallied Sunday to blast Johnny Podres from the game and defeat the Dodgers, 7-5, it dropped Los Angeles 2 games behind the first-place San Francisco Giants and left the Dodgers a bit stunned.

Rookie Dennis Bennett blanked Los Angeles, 7-0, Saturday night to end the Dodgers' streak and bring them back to reality. That loss also tumbled the rocketing Dodgers from a first-place tie with the Giants, and Sunday's loss dropped them down another game.

Manager Walt Alton has named another lefthander, Sandy Koufax (7-2) to try and stop the Phils tonight as the clubs close out a five-game series. The Phillies will pitch their ace, Art Mahaffey (5-6).

The revenge-bent Dodgers appeared ready to run Philadelphia out of Connie Mack Stadium Sunday—or at least knock them out. Los Angeles scored two runs in the second and third.

In the second, Dodger catcher John Roseboro lined a single off pitcher Cal McLish's leg and shortstop Maury Wills conked Philly catcher Sammy White on the head with the bat while swinging at an inside pitch. Both McLish and White had to leave the game.

After singles by Willie Davis and Tommy Davis and a sacrifice fly by Ron Fairly scored two in the first, Tommy was thrown out attempting to go from second to third on Fairly's fly out.

Duke Snider led off the second with a double. Roseboro's single scored him and the Dodgers loaded the bases on walks to Larry Burright and Podres. But Los Angeles couldn't bring any more across.

Philly scored two in the third and then chased Podres with a five-run outburst in the fourth on two walks, an error, three hits and a sacrifice fly. Tony Gonzalez' third homer in as many games was the big blow of the inning.

Angels Drop Rubber Game, 6-3

Crowd Shatters Mark To View NY Yankees

By BOB ABBEY

CHAVEZ RAVINE — It is highly-doubtful that the new "House of Thrills" here which is the home of the Los Angeles Angels will experience another weekend of exciting baseball like the one just over unless it would be a world series or the next time the N.Y. Yankees don their uniforms in the visitors dressing room.

For during the three days Manager Ralph Houk had his Yankee-Doodle Dandy champs here to play the Angels in a three-game series, 146,623 fans jammed O'Malley's

"Dream House" to watch Bill Rigney's Angels cross bats with the World Champion Yankees.

The Yankees had Elston Howard to thank today for being tied for first place in the American League and for their first series win over upstart Angels at Los Angeles in two seasons.

The Yankees took the deciding game of the series Sunday by a 6-3 score as Howard drove in four runs on a pair of homers, his sixth and seventh of the season.

Although the series was not an artistic success for Rig's Angels, it was the club's richest and biggest in its two year history. An American League record crowd for 1962 of 146,623 spun the turnstile's during the three days.

Today the Angels had a day of rest, but will resume action Tuesday against the Chicago White Sox when either "Bo" Belinsky or Dean Chance will take the mound against Joe Horlen.

Sheldon Sharp

Yankee starter Roland Sheldon baffled the Angels for seven innings Sunday during which he shut them out on two hits. But in the eighth inning he lost his shutout when the Angels switched "currents" on their halos and solved his pitching.

Lee Thomas led off the eighth with a single and catcher Bob Rodgers doubled. Thomas then scored on Steve Bilko's sacrifice fly. With two away, Sheldon gave up a base on balls to Joe Koppe, and Earl Averill hit a pinch double to score two more runs. The homecoming ended there, for Marshall Bridges came in and choked off the outburst making Albie Pearson ground out to first baseman Bill Skowron for the final out of the inning.

Howard Homers

New York got off to a quick start in the second inning when Howard smacked his first homer off Eli Grba deep into right center field to score John Blanchard ahead of him. In the third Grba, a former Yankee, hit a batter and gave up a double to Roger Maris his first and only hit of the series.

At this point Skipper Rigney gave the wave to the bull pen and reliever Jack Spring was being brought in to hurl riding in the Angels golf cart given the ball club by the city of Palm Springs.

Blanchard, who shared hitting honors with Howard, singled off Spring to drive in two runs and got his third hit in the eighth inning off Art (the hummer) Fowler, who gave up the second homer to Howard.

"In general, our relievers did a good job again," Rigney said, "but Fowler threw one too high to Howard or we might have been in the game."

PALM SPRINGS DAY

At Chavez Ravine Tagged Huge Success

One of the largest groups of Springs. It was an all-out affair and the special section was spark-assembled poured on six Greyhound buses Sunday morning to let the many other thousands of fans who jammed the ball park know they were from resort desert city and 100 per cent Angel fans.

Prior to the cry of "play ball!" by the plate umpire, Finerman, on behalf of the city of Palm Springs, the Angels spring home, and the groups sponsoring the "special day," presented Angel Manager Bill Rigney with a young palm tree in the Angels dugout. It was a fun trip from start to finish and everyone of the 400 odd Palm Springs folk who were a part in the gala event expressed enjoyment.

Oh, yes — The Angels lost, 6 to 3, to the Yankees.

Colorful Kentucky Derby Ex-Sportscaster Succumbs

NEW YORK (UPI) — Former sports-caster Clem McCarthy, 79, known to millions of racing fans for many years as the colorful broadcaster of Kentucky derbies, died today in a Manhattan nursing home.

McCarthy thrilled radio listeners for 30 years with his husky growl, "R-r-racing fans, the field is at the gate!"

He died at the Dresden Madison Nursing Home, where he had lived for four years. He had been an invalid since suffering a hip injury in an auto accident, and he later contracted Parkinson's disease.

At the nursing home, McCarthy could still rattle off the winners of every Kentucky Derby since 1892. McCarthy saw his first Kentucky Derby in 1892. A spokesman for the nursing home said he had no survivors.
